I was reading the Christmas story this morning and my eyes wandered over to the birth of John the Baptist, the cousin of Jesus. It is a remarkable and thrilling miracle story just as is the birth of Jesus.

I was struck by the prophesy of Simeon, a man who spent hours each day in prayer and worship. He was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke his words of the scripture over baby John. It struck me that we have an opportunity to speak forth God's word daily but during the Holy Days of Thanksgiving and Christmas the very airwaves are filled with God's word about miracles and love. A Year of Growing

This year has been very eventful and challenging. Sweeten Life has blossomed as a ministry that encourages Seasoned Believers to make a Significant difference in their church and families. We are rediscovering the joy of being led, nurtured and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Click here for more...

Strengthening Family Life

Are you concerned about the future of America, the church and our families? I am. I know Christ is able to deliver us from evil and keep our children and grandchildren safe, but I know how many years it takes for Believers to pick up the pieces of a society damaged by Satan. Breaking News

The Lord has opened the door for Sweeten Life to strengthen families at a deeper level. We are partnering with a foundation to develop a unique model to support families with special needs. It is too early for details but start praying about how God wants you support this effort. We need the wisdom and insight that only God's people can give. We also need the right team to develop a great ministry. Click here for more...

Other Ministry Items

This is just the fresh and breaking news. We are continuing our ministry in Russia. However, the bulk of our work is with Seasoned Believers including ministers and church workers in Greater Cincinnati. Click here for more...

Sweeten Life in Action

A great model of an active Seasoned Believer is Donna Thomas, whose losses in life could easily have brought her to a complete halt in ministry. Life was going great with the family's ministry. They had founded a church and pastored it for 25 years and developed an influential mission's agency making a significant difference around the world for the Lord. But tremendous pain and grief came when her husband Charles died and the international ministry was shaken. It almost killed Donna but with the grace of God she survived. Click here for more...
